

Coosawatte

Hubert C. Crowell

Violin

Coosa watte where have you been, down the mountain and around the bend.
Your so deep where have you been, will you ever go down again.

5

Where did you get all that mud, did the Elli jay or Carte cay flood.
Who was it that made you flood, was it Elli jay or Carte cay bringing mud.

9

What happen to your white water, was it that big dam on lake Carter.
Where's the town with your name, under lake Carter, oh what a shame.

13

Where did all the Indians go, did we march them west for your gold.
Your fish traps are still in place, and a foot bridge spans over the space.

17

Though your shorter keep on flowing, we want to know where you are go - ing.
Many cabins now line your shores, where Indians once hunted by the score.
